

Tax & Legal Alert

Italy: The Italian government extends the digital services tax ('DST') deadlines

The Italian government has announced in a press release that the deadlines for the Italian DST due for FY2020 have been extended.

The deadlines for FY 2020 were originally 16 February 2021 for the payment of the tax and 31 March 2021 for the submission of the annual return. However, the Italian government announced last night that the original deadlines have been moved. The new deadlines are as follows:

- 16 March 2021: payment of DST due for FY 2020;
- 30 April 2021: submission of the annual DST return.

Visit our website to consult all the Tax & Legal newsletters:
Homepage Newsletters.

Please do not hesitate to contact us should you require any further clarification or assistance.

Kind regards,

Italian Tax & Legal Alert Team

Key links

- Italian Tax & Legal Updates
 - Homepage Newsletters
 - Contacts
-

kpmg.com/it/socialmedia

kpmg.com/app

Privacy | Legal | Unsubscribe

For further information please contact it-fmksamarketing@kpmg.it.

© 2021 Studio Associato - Consulenza legale e tributaria, an Italian professional partnership and a member firm of the KPMG global organization of independent member firms affiliated with KPMG International Limited, a private English company limited by guarantee. All rights reserved.

The KPMG name and logo are trademarks used under license by the independent member firms of the KPMG global organization.